

Gilliam Stage Electrician

The Gilliam Stage Electrician is responsible for the operation and maintenance of Barter's Gilliam Stage electrical systems, ETC IonXE console operation and programming, and to assist the Resident Lighting Designer and Master Electrician with operation of the electrics department. The opportunity to design lighting for Barter Player productions is available, but not required. This is a full time, exempt position salaried at $706/wk. Benefits and housing included. Contract dates May 13th, 2024 – Dec 29th, 2024

Essential Functions and Skills

- Inspection and upkeep of stage lighting, run lights, house lighting, and special effects
- Maintain clean and organized work areas
- Participation in show shop prep, light hang, focus, and cueing
- Programming and running ETC IonXE console for performances and technical rehearsals
- Daily show changeovers between productions in repertory
- Incandescent and LED lighting fixture maintenance and repair
- Moving light maintenance and repair
- Assist Master Electrician with Lightwright and Vectorworks paperwork as needed
- Assist Master Electrician with work call supervision as needed
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to lift 80lbs
- Ability to work from ladders, at height, and in the grid and lighting coves
- Experience with ETC Lighting systems (EOS consoles, Paradigm, Unison and Smartpack dimming)
- Understanding of DMX and networked data flows
- Basic understanding of Vectorworks and Lightwright a plus
- Basic understanding of QLab playback is a plus
- Basic understanding of sound system signal flow and operations is a plus

Required Education/Experience

BA/BFA/BS in technical theatre with an emphasis in lighting and/or 3 years of experience as a theatrical electrician.

Please send resume and references to Andrew Morehouse, Resident Lighting Designer and Master Electrician, at amorehouse@bartertheatre.com