

Fall

DEATHTRAP

by Ira Levin

Sep 19 - Nov 1

BARTER THEATRE
1933
Gilliam
STAGE

Comfortably nestled into his charming Connecticut home, Sidney Bruhl, a successful playwright, is struggling to overcome a recent string of failures that have left him flat broke. Then Sidney receives a script from one of his writing students– a thriller that Sidney recognizes immediately as a potential Broadway smash. What lengths will Sidney go to make that play his own? Deathtrap promises an evening of twists and turns that will leave you gasping until the very last moment.