

Summer

MOUNTAIN MAMAS

by Daryl Lisa Fazio

June 22 – Aug 9

BARTER THEATRE
1933
Smith
THEATRE

After a mining accident renders her unable to move or communicate, the fiercely independent Patsy Armstrong is forced to rely on her parents for everything. Then her family learns that Patsy's injuries may be the result of her own negligence. What really happened that day in the mine? Inspired by the legacy of women coal miners, this story of resilience and redemption teaches us once again that the truth will set you free.

This play was developed through Barter Theatre's Appalachian Festival of Plays and Playwrights (AFPP).

Content Warning: Strong Language